

The Daily Courant.

Monday, April 26. 1708.

London, April 26.

Yesterday arriv'd 4 Mails from Flanders, the last being that of Tuesday the 20th Instant.

From the Brussels Gazette, dated May 1.

Hambourg, April 23.

ON Friday last, after the Post was gone, we receiv'd Advice from Berlin, that the King of Prussia's Troops which had advanc'd to Lentzen, were order'd to pursue their March towards our four Baillages (or Baillywicks.) The 21st they arriv'd at Berzenbourg within 7 Leagues of this City, and they are hourly expected in our Baillages, whence all the People are retiring with their Cattle, Movables, and other Effects. The Troops of Lunenburgh are likewise in Motion; and the Swedes in the Dutchy of Bremen are to begin their March to Morrow, to come and joyn the Prussians. The Approach of these Forces of the Circle of lower Saxony causes a great Consternation in this City; the Number of Cannon on our Ramparts is increas'd, and 4 Companies of Burghers keep Guard, besides the Companies of regular Soldiers: But these Preparations will signify little, because we are not in a Condition to make much Resistance against the Troops of the Circle which come only to reestablish our Quiet. The Authors of the Disturbances among the Burghers, are like to be deliver'd up to the Director of the Circle, unless they withdraw in Time, Frankfort, April 25. The Elector of Hanover is expected here the Beginning of next Month, and 'tis said that a few Days after his Arrival General Count Thungen will go to the Bath of Embs. That General has caus'd the Troops to canton near the Lines, in such Manner, that in 24 Hours time they can joyn and form the Army. 'Tis talk'd another Army of 25 or 30000 Men will be form'd on the Moselle under the Command of Prince Eugene, who with that Force will be able to favour the Enterprises of the Allies either in Brabant or on the Upper-Rhine. The Enemy lye quier, not making the least Motion that might put us in Pain for our Lines, where all is in a Readyness to give them a good Reception. The States of Swabia are assembled at Ulm. General Count d'Alefeld is taking a Review of the Danish Troops in Bavaria, which are to embark on the Danube for Hungary. The Advices from Aix in Provence of the 14th of this Month, which came by the Way of Switzerland, say, that the French had set 15000 Pioneers at work on an Intrenchment along the River Var; and that 20 Battalions and 15 Squadrons of their Troops in Dauphine had receiv'd Order to march towards the Franche Comte.

Paris, April 27. The 22d Instant at 7 a Clock at Night, the Queen Dowager of England, the pretended Prince of Wales, and the Princess his Sister, came to Marli. The King receiv'd them at the Foot of the Stairs, and led them to the Apartment of the Dutchess of Burgundy, where was Gaming, during which the English Princess made a Visit to the Princess of Conti who was indispos'd of a Cold. About 10 a Clock Supper was Serv'd up, and at Midnight the English Court return'd to St. Germain. The Duke of Vendome making a Visit to the pretended Prince of Wales, told him it was not necessary he should be in Flanders before the 25th of next Month, when the Army will be drawn together in a line for the general Review. The Duke of Vendome is gone to Bellebar, to see his Brother the grand Prior. Thence he will go to Anet, and come back to Clichy, whence he will set out the 3d of next Month for Lille. M. de Chamillart has since his return to Court been often with the King, to settle the Promotion of General Officers and the Distribution of them to the several Armies; but the List is not yet made publick. The Promotion of Sea-Officers was fix'd the 23d: M. Girardin and the Chevalier de Beauharnois are made Captains of Men of War: M. de Vieux-Champs and Seguier de Liancourt Captains of Frigates. The Count de Forbin has a Gratification of 2000 Crowns bestow'd on him, besides an annual Pension of 3000 Livres. The 3 Frigates of his Squadron that were believ'd to be lost, are return'd to Brest, having gone North about. Since the Count de Gace was honour'd with the Dignity of Marshal of France, he styles himself the Marshal de Matignon. The Court will not return from Marli Versailles till the 5th of next Month, and their Journey to Fontaine-bleau is fix'd to the 15th. A Change among the Intendants is talk'd of; particularly that M. de St. Courais will be put into the Room of M. du Gue de Bagnols who is recall'd to Court from Flanders; and that M. de Bernage is to remove from the Intendancy of the Franche-Comte to that of the 3 Bishopricks of Metz Toul and Verdun, but 'tis not said yet who will succeed him in the Franche-Comte. 'Tis reported, that the Count de Forbin has Orders to sail without Delay with a new Squadron fitted out at Dunkirk.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated May 1.

Paris, April 27. The Court seems to be alarm'd and uneasie at the great Preparations made by the Enemy against the Campaign; but the Duke of Vendome gives hope that he will frustrate their Attempts, in Case our Troops are well and regularly paid. We have Advice that the Troops on the Upper Rhine have begun to put themselves in Motion; the 25th the King receiv'd Letters by a Courier from Strasbourg, and Yesterday dispatch'd him back agen to the Marshal de Villars. This Week several Conferences were held with the Swedish Ambassador, on Affairs of great Importance. 'Tis rumour'd, that if there be Occasion, the Marshal de Matignon will command a flying Army on the Moselle.

Maestricht, April 27. Our Garrisons on the Maese having been review'd by the Deputies of the States, march'd out Yesterday to canton about Louvain and Brussels. Preparations for the Campaign are making likewise by the Enemy; but in all appearance they will not be ready to open it on their Side before the End of May.

Tournay, April 28. The French Troops are at present canton'd in the Country from above Ypres to this City. Men are kept constantly at Work on the new Lines, and we are making such Preparations for Defence here, as if we expected to be besieg'd. 'Tis believ'd our Army cannot be form'd before the 24th or 25th of May.

Antwerp, May 1. The Duke of Marlborough will be at Brussels the 11th or 12th of this Instant, in order to open the Campaign forthwith, and act Offensively.

Almost all the Horses not only in and about London, but even in most parts of Great Britain, being seiz'd with a Malignant Disease, properly to be stiled a Heart-Cold; many dying suddenly, first taken with a violent Cough, loathing of Meat, glandular evacuations, voiding of Urine, as appear'd lately in some as big as Tobeco-Pipes which came from Horses &c. contracted by the Malignity of the Air. Notice is hereby given of a Remedy, being of a noble Composition, but principally containing the Quintessence of the true and genuine Venice Treacle of Andromachus, besides its other constituent parts, it warms, comforts, strengthens, animates and revives all the Vital Faculties, carrying off the Distemper, and preventing the fatal consequences, which of necessity will follow, if Death be not avert'd, as broken Wind, &c. Some Years since this Remedy was us'd with wondrous success in the like occasions, and consequently is ground on good Experience. To be had at the Bricklayers Arms in Kings-street Bloomsbury, price 5 s. with printed directions. 'Tis no Farrier or Quack Medicine, but what a Man may take in less proportion, and recommended to the Nobility and all Gentlemen who wish their Horses safety.

An Infallible Mixture for Horses that are Broken-Winded, as also all Coughs, Colds, Wheezings, Stuffings, or any Contagious Distemper; which does perfectly cure them, after many Things premised have been ineffectual, to a Wonder, in a small Time, without Confinement; by attenuating and opening the Globules of the Lungs dried up, and all the Passages obstructed, by Humours dripping thereon; occasion'd from Hard-Ridings, Colds, &c. causing presently a Free Perpiration, renewing its Force, Vigour and Length again as well as ever; it immediately cures those Horses only a little touch'd in their Wind, by maintaining, preserving, and continuing a Good Breath: And in a Word, by this very Medicine only many Horses have been made so perfectly Sound, and have been Sold and val'd at 10 and 12 l. which by being Broken-winded could not before be Sold for 4 or 5 l. N.B. Its also excellent for Preventing and Curing many other Distempers, for it removes all Obstructions, comforts and keeps them Heart-whole, fortifies the Head, prevents Deflections on the Lungs, powerfully resists Pettilential or Contagious Diseases, flings off any thing Obnoxious, and thereby may save many Horses Lives who otherwise by this new Distemper may Perish. Is only Sold at Mrs. Bradbury's, at the Golden Ball, over-against Stock-Market in the Poultry, at 4 s. 6 d. each, with Printed Directions.

Ruptures Cur'd by Wil. Colther, at the Bell and two Naked Boys in St. John's Lane near Clerkenwel, and Trusses made of all sorts, with Springs, Joints, Screws, or plain, the most easy and nice that are made in England, as many by Experience can testify. He likewise maketh Strait-Rockings.

The Vapours in Women infallibly Cured in an Instant, so as never to return again, by an admirable Chymical Secret, a few drops of which takes off a Fit in a Moment, dispels Sadness, clears the Head, takes away all Swimming, Giddiness, Dimness of Sight, Fluffings in the Face, &c. to a Miracle, and most certainly prevents the Vapours returning again; for by Rooting out the very Cause it perfectly Cures as Hundreds have experienced: It also strengthens the Stomach and Bowels, and causes Liveliness and settled Health. Is sold only at Mrs. O'Brien's, Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown under St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street, at 2 s. 6 d. the Bottle, with directions.

The Royal Lotion, for Curling the Hair of the Head; which by its Strengthening, Corroborating Quality, used only once now and then, will cause the Hair to Curl, be it never so Lank and Weak, to a Wonder; and is so sensibly agreeable to the Nature of the Hair, as not to discolour it in the least, but may be used by Persons on themselves; it is of so Corroborating and Strengthening Nature, as quite to alter its Feeble Disposition, and yet is very Innocent, and may be very Serviceable to Gentlemen wearing their own Hair, as also for Ladies and Children, which by its use will be rendered the Wonder of Beholders; its of a Fragrant Smell. Is only to be had at Mr. Harrison's, at the White-Hart in the Poultry: And at Mrs. Cole's at the Dial and 2 Crowns against St. Dunstan's Church, Fleetstreet, at 2 s. 6 d. each, with printed Directions.
